Letter from Dean Probst

Dear Friends of Architecture and Interior Design, UC|DAAP,

After serving as Director of the School of Architecture and Interior Design for over five years, Michaele Pride resigned from her position this week. Our institution is grateful for her many, valuable contributions and is implementing a transition plan immediately.

The School of Architecture and Interior Design enjoys a world-class reputation and is proud of its outstanding student body, high-caliber faculty, and state-of-the-art facility. We just completed successful accreditation visits in both programs and look forward to maintaining the highest standards of architecture and interior design education. UC|DAAP architecture has successfully transitioned from an undergraduate to a graduate program.

Your interest in our college is much appreciated. As we look to the future and the challenges we all face, we need your continued support.

Best regards,

Robert Probst
