

DOE Notice of Intent to Issue Funding Opportunity

Building Energy Codes: Resilient and Efficient Codes Implementation

FOA Issue Date: On or about October 2022.

Total Funding: $225 million; $45 million/year for FY22-26

Anticipated Areas of Interest:

- State and Local Code Adoption
- Workforce Development
- Implementation and Compliance
- Innovative Approaches
- Equity, Energy and Environmental Justice
- Partnerships

Eligible applicants

- State agencies
- Partnerships that include a state agency and at least one of the following:
 - o Local building code agencies
 - o Codes and standards developers
 - o Associations of builders and design and construction professionals
 - o Local and utility energy efficiency programs
 - o Consumer, energy efficiency, and environmental advocates
 - o Other entities “as determined by the Secretary [of DOE]”

Next Steps:

- Interested applicants are encouraged to register and create an account in the Office of Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy (EERE) Exchange: <https://eere-exchange.energy.gov/> (note: grant applications MUST be submitted via EERE Exchange and will not be accepted via Grants.gov);
- Register with the System for Award Management (SAM) at <https://www.sam.gov/>;
- Register in FedConnect at <https://www.fedconnect.net/> (note: the password you receive with your SAM registration is required in order to register with FedConnect);
- Register in Grants.gov to receive automatic updates with FOA amendments are posted.
- Review the Teaming Partner List compiled by EERE
 - o If your organization would like to be included on this list, submit the following information to becp@pnnl.gov with the subject line “RECI FOA: Teaming Partner Information”:
 - Organization name
 - Generic Organization Contact email
 - Generic Contact phone number
 - Organization Type
 - Area of technical expertise (bulleted list less than 25 words)
 - Brief description of capabilities (less than 100 words)

Full NOI available here: <https://eere-exchange.energy.gov/FileContent.aspx?FileID=c6bb38bb-e423-4575-bde1-310a6edd9372>