

Career Opportunity - Project Architect/Project Designer

Casler Design Group seeks qualified candidates to fill Architectural Designer/Project Manager position.

Required Skills and Qualifications:

- Registered Architect with 10 – 15 years of experience in commercial and healthcare architecture to act as lead on a variety of projects
- Demonstrable skills in project design, design development
- Oversight of production and coordination of project construction documents
- Thorough knowledge and understanding of building codes
- Managing and expanding client relationships
- Experience in project management and consultant coordination
- Strong communication, presentation and organizational skills
- Technology skills - high level of proficiency in AutoCad, SketchUp, computer graphics and other office applications

Additional Desired Skills and Qualifications:

- Concentration in Corporate and Healthcare work
- Knowledge of Interior Architecture, Interior Design
- Proficiency in Revit
- LEED certification and knowledge of sustainable design principles
- Marketing and business development experience

Casler Design Group, Inc. is an established and stable design firm specializing in commercial and corporate architecture and interior design. Our practice is focused on the design of corporate, medical, retail, and hospitality facilities. Casler Design offers exceptional benefits and flexible work arrangements in a creative and collaborative atmosphere. The position advertised has significant opportunity for personal growth and long term potential for leadership.

Please email resume and portfolio to wcasler@caslerdesign.com.

“Leading you through change by design”

See us on the web at www.caslerdesign.com!